General Safety Information

FOR THE SAFE AND SUCCESSFUL OPERATION OF THIS PRODUCT, PLEASE READ AND FOLLOW THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS USER MANUAL BEFORE USE.

Do not open ChargeHub™ as contents may cause electric shock.

For proper operation, use only approved ChargeHub™-branded electronics and components as well as specified compatible electronic devices.

The majority of states have laws prohibiting the use of mobile devices while driving. ChargeHub™ does not condone such usage and strongly recomments against it, regardless of local law. Any use of a mobile device while driving is at the users sole risk and ChargeHub™ assumes no liability of any kind therefore. Please drive safely.

Introduction

ChargeHub™ is designed for use with small electronic devices such as cell phones, tablets, MP3 players, gaming devices, Bluetooth® headsets, navigation units, video/digital cameras, mobile hotspots, portable power chargers, etc. It allows users to charge up to 7 USB devices simultaneously. Charge time may vary based on the particular devices under charge and battery charge limitations.

ChargeHub™ works by using standard USB cables to connect to your devices. Adapters for most consumer electronics manufacturers worldwide are available for purchase under the CableLinx™ brand.

For up-to-date compatibility charts, product assistance, or to purchase additional CableLinx™ USB cables, please visit our website:

www.thechargehub.com

Note: The ChargeHub™ may not be compatible with all USB chargeable devices. This model is not designed for charging notebook computers or other high current devices. (See Technical Specifications Table on page 19)

Overdraw Protection

When multiple devices are connected, the ChargeHub™ may at times reach its maximum charge capacity. Once this occurs, the unit will start blinking and connected devices should be temporarily disconnected one by one until the blinking stops. Once the connected devices consume less power and the blinking stops, the user should wait a short period of time and begin to reconnect the devices one by one to resume charging.
